Priority:	Normal
Assignee:	drbrain (Eric Hodel)
Target version:	2.0.0
Description
Eric Hodel is planning to update Rake by the end of November. See [ruby-core:48212].
Eric, will you update it to the version 10? If so, do you think the incompatibility is not a problem? (ko1 told me that it has not a small number of incompatibilities) https://github.com/jimweirich/rake/blob/next-major-release/doc/release_notes/rake-10.0.0.rdoc
I'm not against updating, but I'd like to confirm your opinion.

History

I asked Jim and he thought rake 0.9.3 was better to include in Ruby 2.0.0, so I plan to import that.

We can consider updating to rake 10 for the next minor.

Agreed.

Then, what's the status?
This is one of the biggest tasks for 2.0.0-preview2.
Let me know if you have any serious problem.
Good luck!
